

You can see all out side timbers are original and the fire place in still screws in original timber from cladding or plasterboard.